

CARE Conference

Forensic Accounting

August 2016

Panel 6:

Mary-Jo Kranacher

Cindy Durtschi

Sara Kern-Melendy

Richard Riley

John Warren

Forensic Accounting

- Research
- Resources
- Experiential Learning

Cindy Durtschi

- Professor of Accounting at DePaul University
- Immediate past President of AAA Forensic Accounting section
- Received numerous awards, including the 2006 AAA Innovation in Audit Education Award for her published case in forensic accounting, “The Tallahassee BeanCounters”

Sara Melendy-Kern

- Professor of Accounting at Gonzaga University
- Current President of the AAA Western Region
- Developed a forensic accounting laboratory called the Justice for Fraud Victims Project
- Received several Innovation in Teaching awards

Richard A. Riley

- Louis F. Tanner Distinguished Professor of Public Accounting at WVU & IFP Director of Research at WVU
- Numerous awards for teaching and writings
- Developed fraud and forensic accounting education programs for the US NIJ and IRS
- Performs expert financial analysis and litigation support services
- Co-authored four books in fraud & forensic accounting field

John Warren

- ACFE VP and General Counsel
- Advisory Member of ACFE Board of Regents
- Responsible for producing the ACFE Biennial Report to the Nations
- Assisted in developing the ACFE's Anti-fraud Education Partnership
- President Emeritus of the Institute for Fraud Prevention (IFP)

Mary-Jo Kranacher

- ACFE Endowed Professor of Fraud Examination & Professor of Accounting
- Former Editor-in-Chief of The CPA Journal
- President Emeritus of the Institute for Fraud Prevention (IFP)
- Co-author of Forensic Accounting & Fraud Examination textbook, published by Wiley
- Numerous awards for teaching & writings
- Performs expert witnessing & consulting services

Q

&

A

THANK YOU!

Mary-Jo Kranacher
mjkranacher@york.cuny.edu